Your primary care provider (PCP)

When you join First Choice Next, you will need to choose a primary care provider (PCP). This is a very important step.

Your PCP is a doctor, nurse practitioner, physician assistant, or other medical provider who is focused on your health and wellness. You should plan to see your PCP on a regular basis so they can provide you with the best care. They will also be your first call when you have a medical problem or concern. They can refer you to specialists if you need care your PCP doesn't provide.

When choosing a PCP, be sure to find one whom you can get to easily and who can accommodate your personal needs, including your communication needs. If you are unable to choose, we can assign one to you. Remember, you can change your PCP at any time for any reason on the Member Portal.
